Regina Huda School Donates to Food Bank

Event: Students, family and staff of the Regina Huda School will donate a large amount of food to the Regina and District Food Bank to coincide with the Islamic Holy Month of Ramadan and the Food Bank's drive to raise the largest amount of food in a 24-hour period.

Background: Regina and District Food Bank is vying for recognition for raising the most food ever in a 24-hour period. Representatives of the Food Bank will be at the Regina Huda School to accept the generous donation from the school community.

The Regina Huda School is the city's only Preschool to Grade 11 school that caters (although not exclusionary) to Regina's Islamic community. In addition to the core Saskatchewan curriculum, students take Islamic studies, including Islamic manners. Students have the opportunity to learn, among many other things, how to read the Quran and Arabic language.

Regina Huda School's mission statement is: Gaining the best of the Canadian Culture while preserving the Islamic Identity. For more information about the Regina Huda School please visit: <http://www.hudaschool.regina.sk.ca/>. The school is an Associate School of Regina Public Schools and operates with its own community board.
